STUDY ABROAD IN SPAIN & MOROCCO

EXPLORE • ENGAGE • DISCOVER
EDUCATIONABROAD.COLOSTATE.EDU

FOOD, CULTURE, & THE ENVIRONMENT IN THE MEDITERRANEAN
June 1 – June 27, 2020

INST 382B (3 CREDITS)
POLS 482D (3 CREDITS)

Students have the option of taking 3 or 6 credits

Explore sustainable food systems, natural environmental settings, and fluid and diverse cultural histories, in Rabat, Morocco and Granada, Spain.

APPLICATION DEADLINES
Early: December 1
Final: February 15
HOMESTAYS include breakfast & lunch
Trips to Historical Sites
Al-Hamra Palace
Priego de Córdoba: Olive Groves and Olive Press
Nature Tour
Bread-making Workshop
Hike in Sierra Nevada Natural Park
Flamenco Workshop
Cooking Class
Wine Tasting
Farewell Dinner
Taking the Ferry from Spain to Morocco
RABAT, MOROCCO

June 15th - 27th
Contemporary Environmental Issues
Visits to Historical Sites
Exotic Gardens of Bouknadel
Field Trips
Moroccan Food System
Homestays in Rabat
Henna Party
Chefchaouen – The Blue City
The Medina of Fez
- Homestays in Rabat
- Meals Covered
- Day Trip to Fez
- Field Trips to Tangier/Chefchaouen
GAMZE ÇAVDAR
Poli-Sci 382D:
Politics of Food
in Mediterranean

ANDREA DUFFY
INST382B:
Environment and History
in Mediterranean
How Can You Register?

1. Visit the Home Page:
   Educationabroad.colostate.edu > Program Search > Food

2. Attend an Information Session:
   Monday, October 28th, Eddy 103, 3:30-4:40pm
   Thursday, November 7th, LSC 310, 4:00-5:00pm